THE HAYTI HERALD

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, BY WILLIAM YORK, EDITOR AND PUB.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: $1.00 A YEAR, CASH IN ADVANCE

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE, HAYTI, MISSOURI, AS SECOND CLASS MATTER

Office in City Hall, Southwest Room, Hayti, Pemiscot County, Missouri

ENDING OUR FIRST YEAR.

The Hayti Herald is nearing the one year mark, and we must say that we are well pleased with our success. It makes us feel good to remark that nearly all our subscriptions are paid-up, especially in Hayti. We started in on the cash basis, feeling that any one who desired could pay for their home paper, and there was no necessity for credit, which has been well proven. The few credit subscribers we have are among our friends in the country who wanted to wait a year to see if the paper would live, before giving it any assistance, which we were glad to do, and we have proven to them that the Herald can live.

Now, we expect to start in our second year without a single credit subscriber, and we expect to hold all of our old subscribers and add many new names.

By all our subscribers paying up promptly, we can finish paying for the outfit, add improvements to same, and start in the second year better fixed and enabled to give you a better paper. So in promptly renewing your subscription for another year, you are not only helping us, but helping the town and yourself by making us better able to serve you.

This is a business proposition all the way through. Hayti needs the paper and you need it—every man ought to feel proud of his home paper—so the better we are patronized the better we can serve you, and if you know of any one who is not taking the paper you should urge them to do so.

Promptly when our year is up, in October, our solicitor will visit you, and ask for your support for another year.

MODEST WANTS.

The editor of the Steele News has received the following letter:

"Please send me about a dozen copies of the paper which had the half-column obituary of Silas Jones. He was not a subscriber and his family wants the papers. Also publish the inclosed obituary of Zack Smith and send his widow a few copies. Zack was a member of our lodge, and we will want you to print resolutions of respect. I wish you would mention, if it doesn't cost anything, that I have a nice residence and some land for rent and send me a couple of copies containing this notice. As my subscription is out, please stop my paper. I am taking the St. Louis Republic and the Memphis Commercial Appeal and have no time to read your paper."

"P. 3: Would like for you to publish the inclosed notes about our school, and also the date of our lodge meeting, and the directory of our Sunday school and church."

"Don't forget to stop the paper. My wife says she can borrow one from the Widow Jane Simpkins in case we want to read it."

None but the initiated know the accuracy required in a printing office. The average reader who detects a misspelled word or a letter upside down feels that his mission on earth is not accomplished until he has called the attention of the overworked editor to the glaring defect. He does not notice the thousands of letters that are in place, or the multitude of words correctly spelled, but his eagle eye is glued on the one that is out of place. So it is with our deeds. Man does a thousand good deeds and no attention is paid to them, but if he makes one mistake it is flashed all over the world. A lifetime may be spent in building up a reputation that may be wrecked in a moment. The work is a hard critic exacting to a fault.—Ex.

Judge W. W. Tarkington is the second yearly subscriber to renew his subscription for another year. The Judge is getting old now. He is one of our pioneer citizens, and went through the civil war, on the Confederate side, enlisting from this country. He has lived in Hayti many years, and our first acquaintance with him dates back to 1887, twenty-two years ago, when he was superintendent of Sunday school in the little frame school house that was built in 1875. At that time Hayti had neither church or postoffice, and a railroad was not dreamed of.

Harry B. McClure, scientific assistant, office of farm management, bureau of plant industry of the United States agricultural department, who is putting up the alfalfa drying experimental station on the Alfalfa Farm, was in our office Saturday, and presented us with his bulletin, No. 362, treating on the "conditions affecting the value of market hay." Mr. McClure is well up in his work, and we hope much good may be derived from his experiments here.

W. E. Robertson, section foreman at this place, suffered the loss of one eye Sunday morning, while tightening a lock nut in the switch yards. The bolt broke, allowing the nut to strike him in the eye. After being cared for by Dr. J. W. Johnson, Mr. Robertson left for the hospital at St. Louis.

Hayti is rapidly pushing up to the 2500 mark. Ending on Wednesday of last week Dr. F. A. Mayes played the part of Stork five nights successively.

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss
County of Pemiscot, ss
Pemiscot County, Missouri, Circuit Court Record, July Term, 1909, Monday, the 13th day of the term, and the 2nd day of August, 1909.
Anna Bullington, Plaintiff, vs.
John Bullington, Defendant.

Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein, by her attorney, S. J. Jeffress, and files her petition and affidavit, alleging among other things, that the defendant, John Bullington, is not a resident of the State of Missouri, so that the ordinary process of law can not be served upon him in this state.

Whereupon, it is ordered by the clerk in vacation that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against him in this court, the object and general nature of which is to dissolve the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between plaintiff and defendant, and that unless the said John Bullington be and appear at this court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the court house in the City of Caruthersville, in said county, on the 15th day of November next, and on or before the first day of said term, unless further time be granted by the court, answer or demur to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgement will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof be published, according to law, in the Hayti Herald, a newspaper published in said County of Pemiscot, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of the said next regular term of this court.

A true copy from the record.
Witness my hand, and seal of the Circuit Court of Pemiscot County, this 18th day of September, 1909.
[seal] E. S. Huffman, Circuit Clerk.
